Welcome to the Park Café!

Our green oasis right next to the EisArena, in the heart of Hamburg — a place to take a breath, relax and enjoy the moment.

We believe that a good break deserves good food. That's why we focus on honest, flavourful cooking made with regional and organic ingredients wherever possible. Many of our dishes are homemade, while the rest comes from carefully selected local suppliers who share our love for Hamburg, sustainability and quality.

Our guests mean a lot to us, and we want every visit to be filled with enjoyable moments — with good vibes, passion and genuine hospitality. And because we are human, mistakes can happen. If something does not meet your expectations, or if there is anything we can do for you, please let us know. We are always happy to make things better together.

It's lovely to have you here. Make yourself comfortable and enjoy your time with us!
